Please state anything you may know

you may know about it?

Answer. I know that G. W. Norwood was a R.R. Contractor and was doing work for the L. & N. R.R. in Bell County Ky. on Yellow Creek, in the fall of 1888. I was employed by Thomas Covin and delivered beef for him to Mr Norwood. I delivered beef twice or three times a week, for about two months. and sometimes I got a receipt for the beef and Sometimes I got no receipt, I expect I delivered as much as Two Thousand pounds of beef to Norwood, during the month of October 1888. I heard Mr Norwood tell his hands that he was paying $5\frac{1}{2}$ Cents per pound for beef.

Quies by same.

Do you know anything about Mr. Gavin regarding Mr. Norwood's hands, and if so state what you may know about it?

Answer

All I know about it is, that some of Norwood's hands boarded with me Gavin, and I heard them say that Mr Norwood was to pay the bill, and I saw Mr Gavin present the bill to Norwood and he said it was all right, and that the money would be paid, one of the men stayed there and boarded a long time, and I should think they boarded out at least eighteen dollars worth.

Quies by same.

Was Mr. Norwood prompt or not to pay his bills and contracts?

I don't think he was very prompt for I heard a great many complaints

Please state anything you may know

Answer. Mr Norwood was a Contractor on the

Mr Norwood Beef for Mr Covin on several occasions in the fall of 1888. and I generally brought that a man by the name of

and I file with this my deposition receipts numbered 1-2-3-4 & 5 signed G. W. Norwood per Blenums. which I am of opinion were signed by said Blenums. I also file a receipt.

Numbered "6" signed "G. W. Norwood man by the name of Siler did the two receipts also filed herewith Numbered 7 & 8, and signed G. W.

Norwood J. J. J. I do not know who J. J. J. was - but I do know that Mr Norwood had several different Clerks. I don't remember exactly what Cavin was to have for the beef - but it was somewhere from five to six Cents per lb.
I think the paper Numbered "9" is in G. W. Norwood's hand writing.
I saw quite a number of R. R. hands boarding with Mr Cavin - but did not know who they were. The people in the vicinity of his work complained about Mr Norwood being slow pay.
